Beyond word of mouth, general press coverage, or standard marketing and promotion, the stations of All Classical Portland address issues of cultural vitality, arts community viability, the significance of music as it relates to the human experience, health, and education by dedicating significant airtime to conversations and performance to these community initiatives. These unique opportunities serve to enlighten a diverse audience within a broad region while deepening relationships with community partner organizations.

Special programming dealing with local issues include the following programs:

NORTHWEST PREVIEWS All Classical Portland's celebration of the local arts scene. A five-minute program highlighting arts events for the upcoming weekend and week ahead.

YOUTH ROVING REPORTERS All-encompassing arts journalism scholarship program, wherein All Classical Portland on-air hosts mentor exceptional high school students. Each participant conducts in-depth interviews with artistic leaders and performers, highlighting our region's vibrant arts community through their own perspective. Below is a list of interviews that aired during this reporting period.

WHERE WE LIVE A monthly radio and web series that explores issues facing our community through an artistic lens, providing a greater awareness of the societal needs of our region.

ON DECK WITH YOUNG MUSICIANS A weekly interview with young classical performers from Oregon and Southwest Washington.
